OFFICE OF STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

Loss of Financial Aid Appeal Request // 2024-2025

	NAME:		OBU ID:	DATE:
required extended recovery time Death of an immediate family member Family difficulties, such as divorce or separation Financial difficulties Other unexpected circumstances beyond the student's control Spend some time considering what happened and what can be improved. Attach an essay to explain in your own words what happened over the past semester or year that contributed to your low GPA or lack of successful hours completed. Also attach any supporting documentation you might have. Include your goals for your future, and any solutions or specific actions you will take to improve your grades and class attendance. Your essay will be used to consider approval of your appeal request. You will need to provide more than one or two sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: Approved Denied			-	o maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress
Financial difficulties Other unexpected circumstances beyond the student's control Spend some time considering what happened and what can be improved. Attach an essay to explain in your own words what happened over the past semester or year that contributed to your low GPA or lack of successful hours completed. Also attach any supporting documentation you might have. Include your goals for your future, and any solutions or specific actions you will take to improve your grades and class attendance. Your essay will be used to consider approval of your appeal request. You will need to provide more than one or two sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: Approved Denied	_		nt or immediate family memb	per (parent, spouse, sibling, or child) that
□ Financial difficulties □ Other unexpected circumstances beyond the student's control Spend some time considering what happened and what can be improved. Attach an essay to explain in your own words what happened over the past semester or year that contributed to your low GPA or lack of successful hours completed. Also attach any supporting documentation you might have. Include your goals for your future, and any solutions or specific actions you will take to improve your grades and class attendance. Your essay will be used to consider approval of your appeal request. You will need to provide more than one or two sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: □ Approved □ Denied		Death of an immediate family members	er
Other unexpected circumstances beyond the student's control Spend some time considering what happened and what can be improved. Attach an essay to explain in your own words what happened over the past semester or year that contributed to your low GPA or lack of successful hours completed. Also attach any supporting documentation you might have. Include your goals for your future, and any solutions or specific actions you will take to improve your grades and class attendance. Your essay will be used to consider approval of your appeal request. You will need to provide more than one or two sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: Approved Denied		Family difficulties, such as divorce or	separation
Spend some time considering what happened and what can be improved. Attach an essay to explain in your own words what happened over the past semester or year that contributed to your low GPA or lack of successful hours completed. Also attach any supporting documentation you might have. Include your goals for your future, and any solutions or specific actions you will take to improve your grades and class attendance. Your essay will be used to consider approval of your appeal request. You will need to provide more than one or two sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: Approved Denied		Financial difficulties
what happened over the past semester or year that contributed to your low GPA or lack of successful hours completed. Also attach any supporting documentation you might have. Include your goals for your future, and any solutions or specific actions you will take to improve your grades and class attendance. Your essay will be used to consider approval of your appeal request. You will need to provide more than one or two sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: Approved Denied		Other unexpected circumstances bey	ond the student's control sentences to explain your circumstances. Student Financial Services Use Only: Approved Denied	what happ Also attach	ened over the past semester or year than any supporting documentation you m	at contributed to your low GP night have. Include your goals	A or lack of successful hours completed.
☐ Approved ☐ Denied		• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	our appeal request. You wil	I need to provide more than one or two
	Student Fi	nancial Services Use Only:
By SFS Staff: Date:	☐ Approv	red □ Denied
	By SFS Staf	f:	Date:	